

National Marrow Donor Program Community Engagement Liaison

Successful candidate likes to work independently, is outgoing, friendly and an energetic individual who takes a proactive and driven approach to obtaining results. Position is responsible for coordinating the donor center responsibilities of the National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP) Be The Match (BTM) registry members, including but not limited to all search activities. Serves as the communications and education liaison between RRVBC, Be The Match, and the communities served in order to promote participation, engagement and fundraising. Position acts as the company representative for The Red Shoe Run and acts as Donor Awareness Committee Chair. Works with the NMDP team on community drives and education as well as with RRVBC employees, blood drive recruiters, organizations, families, volunteers, corporations and community groups to promote the dual missions of Be The Match and RRVBC. Position requires use of one's own vehicle for daily travel and ability to work evenings and weekends as business needs require. 2 plus years recruitment, sales, community and public relations skills with a BA in Marketing, Business, or related field with some medical exp. preferred. Please visit us at www.rrvbc.org to apply online. EOE M/F/D/V